

Non-Members Privacy Notice

By registering with BAUS and creating an account for yourself you have provided personal information which we retain in accordance with the relevant data protection legislation.

The information you provided will be used for the legitimate business for which you registered; additionally, BAUS may from time to time email you with information compatible with your profile. You may unsubscribe at any time.

If you have registered for an industry sponsored webinar you will have to agree to the delegate terms and conditions which appear during the booking process.

If you are a UK GMC registered medical practitioner BAUS may add your GMC number, position and place of work to your record. It is vitally important for BAUS to maintain up to date urological workforce data in order to ensure there are sufficient urological services available throughout the UK.

BAUS will not sell your details to any third parties. BAUS will not share your details with any unrelated third parties, without your consent.

You can check and amend your information by accessing your profile via the MyBAUS area of the website.

Security

BAUS will take all reasonable physical, electronic, and administrative steps to safeguard and protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised use, access, inadvertent disclosure, alteration and destruction.

The security of any personal data is extremely important to BAUS and we will strive to protect all personal data, but it must be noted that despite reasonable precautions no data transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Therefore, you need to be aware that if you disclose any personal information to us online or otherwise, you do so at your own risk.

All information you provide to BAUS is stored securely. Any payment transactions will be encrypted using SSL technology and any credit, debit card or payment details you submit online will be processed and held by our third-party payment processor, Stripe.

Where BAUS has given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain parts of the BAUS site, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone.

Your rights

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016/679 and The Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA) you have a number of rights with regard to your personal data. You have the right to;

- Request from us access to and rectification or erasure of your personal data.
- Restrict processing.
- Object to processing as well as in certain circumstances the right to data portability.

- Withdraw consent if processing is based on consent, although please note the basis on which we hold and process your data is that we have a legitimate interest in doing so as part of your membership of BAUS.

If you have provided consent for the processing of your data you have the right (in certain circumstances) to withdraw that consent at any time which will not affect the lawfulness of the processing before your consent was withdrawn. If you want to exercise any of your rights with respect to the access, processing, accuracy, storage, deletion or any other aspects of your personal data then please write to Patricia Hagan.
