

Educational Course Lead for Scientific Basis of Urology

Job Description

Background

The BAUS Education Steering Group (ESG) provides leadership and strategic oversight across all educational activity undertaken by BAUS. BAUS Educational Course Leads are responsible for the delivery of educational activity set out by ESG.

The Scientific Basis of Urology is a four-day course designed to support candidates in preparing for part one of the FRCS (Urol) examination. BAUS took over the running of this event in 2025.

Tasks and Remit

- Design and develop aims and objectives for the Scientific Basis of Urology and course content in line with these
- Identify and invite lecturers from diverse backgrounds nationally and brief lecturers on course content and delivery methods
- Chair or identify chairs for on-site delivery
- Virtual attendance at Educational Lead meetings to provide updates and feedback on development of Scientific Basis of Urology course
- Liaison with the other BAUS Educational Leads, particularly the Educational Lead for Specialty Trainees who organises the bi-annual FRCS (Urol) Revision Course, to facilitate a coordinated and seamless transition through urological education
- Work with BAUS events team to update on progress, confirm speakers and input into feedback questionnaire

Term of Appointment

The Lead will be appointed for a period of three years with annual reviews by the ESG Chair to assess progress. The position is renewable for a further two years, to a total of five years, subject to the agreement of the Trustees and ESG Chair.

Previous Experience/ Skillset

The British Association of Urological Surgeons

It is anticipated that the Educational Course Lead for the Scientific Basis of Urology will have strong academic links.

Ideally, applicants should have previous experience supporting BAUS educational initiatives. Applicants may also have gained experience of education with the surgical Royal Colleges.

Reporting and Budget

This role will sit within the Educational Leads group and report to ESG.

The budget for the course is set annually with the Head of Events and the Education Course Lead is responsible for delivering the course within budget.

Close liaison and communication are essential with BAUS Events Team/BAUS administrative staff.

Applications

The ESG will keep the role under review and can amend the JD, as appropriate, to meet BAUS needs.
