

MEDICAL STUDENT ESSAY COMPETITION 2017

Urological technology – where will we be in 20 years?

Medical students are invited to submit a 1500 word essay on “Urological Technology – where will we be in 20 years?”

Word limit: 1500 maximum excluding title, abstract (no more than 200 words) and references.

Students must currently be an undergraduate enrolled at a medical school in either England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland or the Republic of Ireland – entries from students attending a medical school in overseas countries will not be eligible. The author of the essay judged to be the most outstanding in each medical school will receive a prize of £100 and be entered into the national competition.

The prize for the authors of the two best essays in the national competition will be guest registration for, and a grant towards the cost of attending, the BAUS 2017 Annual Conference at the SECC, Glasgow (26-29 June 2017) where they will be presented with a Certificate of Merit.

Please submit essays to BAUS no later than 16:00hr on Monday 3 April 2017 by email to ctaylor@baus.org.uk. Please include the name of the medical school you are currently attending in the covering email.

All submitted essays will be acknowledged by email. If you do not receive an acknowledgment, please telephone the BAUS Office (Charlotte Taylor) on 020 7869 6953.

Further details are on the BAUS website.
